

Common Core Standards Symposium

Madison

February 19, 2010

CCSSO

The Council of Chief State School Officers will describe the process and content of the Common Core Standards.

ASCD

ASCD will give its perspective on the issue of national standards including the role of 21st Century Skills.

DPI

The Department of Public Instruction will offer the state perspective and the status of our state standards.

What do you know about the implications of the Common Core Standards Initiative ?

Wisconsin ASCD will provide a venue for state education leaders to develop a shared understanding of the Common Core Standards Initiative to inform our collective efforts and state-wide capacity to affect student learning positively . Get up-to-date in a rapidly changing policy environment by collaborating with education leaders and formulating some initial responses to effectively implement the Common Core Standards in Wisconsin.

Agenda for the Day

Start with our networking breakfast buffet.
Followed by presentations from CCSSO,
ASCD, DPI & WASCD, including Q&A.
Small group discussions over lunch.
Group process to direct next steps.

For more detailed information on the Common Core Standards Initiative visit www.corestandards.org

Read the WASCD position statement at www.wascd.org/positionst.asp

Join us for a day to get information and to talk about the implications of this fast-track initiative that will impact all of us.

How will they affect my district?

The national standards train seems to have left the station since 48 states, including Wisconsin, have already signed on. We have the following concerns:

- The short timeline
- State assessments
- Subjects other than reading and math
- Graduation requirements
- Funding / grant requirements
- Involvement of the federal government in a state-level issue
